

VON DER GOLTZ AND 80,000 TURKS SLACKED UP IN ERZERUM British Liner Appam, Thought Lost, at Newport in Charge of German Crew

MISSING BRITISH LINER IS PRIZE OF THE HUNS

The Appam, Captured by Sub.,
in a U. S. Port.

Was Taken Off African Coast
On Jan. 18.

(By Times Special Wire.)
Newport News, Va., Feb. 1.—The British South African liner Appam, given up for lost, was brought into Hampton Roads this morning flying the German man-of-war flag, with a German prize crew of twenty-two men, commanded by Lieut. Berg. She was captured at sea on Jan. 18, four days after she left Dakar, British West Africa.

The Appam brought her original passengers and 138 persons, said to have been taken from other vessels by the Germans. Four injured passengers on board are said to have been taken from an English ship from Australia. About 425 persons, including passengers and crew, are aboard the ship.

While Lieut. Berg came ashore to pay his respects to Col. Haynes, commandant at Fortress Monroe, Quarantine officers boarded the ship. Meanwhile, no one was permitted to come ashore.

The Appam was captured off the Canary Islands on Jan. 18 by a German submarine, which, a few hours before, had sunk a British steamer.

The vessel came into port under the name "S. M. S. Appam," meaning "His Majesty's Ship Appam," thereby indicating that the Germans may intend the vessel is a German auxiliary cruiser. This theory is also strengthened by the fact that the Appam flew the German man-of-war flag, and not the flag of the German merchant marine or the British flag, as she entered port.

It is said there are 150 of the original British crew aboard, and 168 of the passengers. In addition to that there are 23 Germans, said to have been transferred from the submarine to the steamer, and 138 sailors, prisoners of the Germans, captured in sea raids. Lieut. Berg, conferred with L. Marshall von Schilling, German Consul here, and also communicated with the German authorities at Washington.

The Appam has one 3-inch gun mounted aboard. When the submarine sent a shot across the Appam's bows, she immediately halted on account of the large number of passengers she carried, according to Captain Harrison of the liner.

GERMAN SCIENTISTS WERE SIMPLY SPIES

Savants Who Attended British Association In Australia Merely Hun Tools.

Proofs Found On Them of Old Plots—Commonwealth Thoroughly Roused.

(By Times Special Wire.)
New York, Feb. 1.—A special to the Herald says: Melbourne, Jan. 3.—That four German savants, who attended the congress of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, held in Australia in August and September, 1914, mocked the hospitality lavished upon them as upon other guests of the association by Australians—main words, turned themselves into spies—has just been revealed by the "star" of this city. German professors, were Doctors Albert Penck, Eugene Goldstein, Grabner and Pringheim. The age says:

These learned gentlemen still incurred the Commonwealth's wrath was declared. They immediately approached the Federal Government for permission to return to Germany, representing that they were international scientists and therefore neutral, and that, although by accident of birth German citizens, they belonged to the whole world, and ought not to be detained. The Commonwealth assented to this proposition, and merely required them to take the oath of neutrality. Doctors Goldstein and Penck promptly took the oath. The former went to Java and the latter took ship to England.

Doctors Grabner and Pringheim were more difficult than their colleagues, and they raised certain objections. At length, however, they took the oath, but suspicion fell on them, and their correspondence was intercepted, and examined before they sailed. This correspondence proved that they were spies, and they were immediately arrested and interned. Dr. Goldstein got away, but not so Dr. Penck.

The last-named professor's baggage was overhauled during his journey to Europe, under cabled instructions from the war authorities. It contained engines, more complete information concerning Australia's military preparations, the names of German agents, and the correspondence of Grabner and Pringheim, and it contained, in addition, the most excellent counter maps of the Commonwealth.

LONDON NAILS ONE MORE GERMAN LIE

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, Feb. 1, 2.30 p.m.—Official denial was made here to-day of reports, attributed to German sources, that England intends to abandon her Allies, and has made peace overtures to Germany.

The statement follows: The German Chancellor has stated that England is compelling her Allies to refrain from entering upon any peace movement. This statement, which our Allies know to be untrue, was made for the purpose of injuring England's credit and thereby to induce her to abandon her Allies. We hear that insidious and untrue reports are being circulated from German sources that England intends to abandon them, and has even made peace overtures to Germany.

"The two statements together are a good illustration of how unscrupulous Germany is."

NO SMOKE

Ex-Ald. Morgan Says Right Firing Will Prevent It.

Ex-Ald. W. R. Morgan, who was a miller in Hamilton over thirty years, declares that there is no reason why there should be a smoke nuisance in Hamilton. "It all depends on the firms. Proper firing prevents smoke and saves fuel," Mr. Morgan says. He accomplished both by installing a coal oil on top of a bright fire he installed that his firemen should first put the bright coal in the furnace well back and throw the new coal in front. The smoke, which is really waste fuel, was consumed passing over the bed of hot coal. "The other essential is to throw in less coal at a time, but more frequently."

WILL BE FIRM

London Paper Says Britain Will Maintain Her Advantage.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, Feb. 1.—The Morning Post, commenting to-day on the question asked by President Wilson, "But when the world is on fire, how much time do you want to take in this country?" says: "It appears that America has lost 15 months' peace. We in this country have more time than that, and that, and the price we are paying is very high. If Germany conquered Europe she would have the time to make a new world. America, without the slightest respect for the Monroe or other doctrines," "That we quite understand that the abstract considerations do not necessarily affect the business of diplomacy. If the United States considers regulations laid down by the British conflict with the law of nations, as interpreted by President Wilson, there is no doubt that the United States will only explain its views to this country. But war is law, and no neutral, and least of all the United States, can expect a belligerent to part with belligerent rights to suit a neutral's mere commercial convenience."

1,200 AUTOS

The 1916 Licenses Are Ready for Them.

Payment of automobile licenses for the ensuing year opened to-day, and the Hamilton Automobile Association, which has been in the office of the Bank of Toronto building, is estimated that the total amount to be derived from this source in Hamilton is about $100,000. There are to be twelve hundred auto and auto trucks, and a goodly number of these are Ford.

OLD RAIDERS REACH LONDON LAST NIGHT?

Obscure Cable to New York Looks Like Report of Helms Dead as a Result.

MANCHESTER

Great Manufacturing Centre Also Aimed at New Restrictions Put in Force.

New York, Feb. 1.—The Tribune publishes the following special dispatch:

London, Feb. 1.—Eleven deaths reported England yesterday of lightning restrictions. Five of tragedies occurred London street, three of victims soldiers.

(The above dispatch refers undoubtedly to the Zepplin raid on England. Its unusual wording is the attempt of the Tribune's correspondent to get the news past the censor. "Lightning" is probably "lighting," and means the order to keep out lights saved many lives. It is the first hint that the raiders reached London.)

London, Feb. 1.—By direction of the naval and military authorities, the police today ordered illumination of houses and streets, in addition to the War Office statement to the effect that six or seven airships passed over the eastern part of England, dropping a number of bombs. At the time the announcement was made, it was said, no considerable damage had been reported.

The Manchester Guardian says that city was a centre of discussion of the Zepplin last night. The London Globe says it would appear that the ostensible object of last night's raid was an attack upon certain munitions factories, and adds: "The moral of the raid seems to be that unless Zepplin make for their quarter where special preparations have been undertaken, we have practically no defence against them."

The Standard maintains that the defence against aircraft have been improved greatly, particularly around London. Most papers agree in urging vigilance, but the Manchester Guardian maintains that the responsibility rests with the Admiralty to develop out of learning of the approach of aircraft before they reach the coast.

The Evening News writes that last night's raid was the largest which has yet occurred, so far as the number of Zepplins is concerned. The News and the Evening Standard confirm the account of the English raid, which failed to designate the places affected, with the full details which were cabled from Paris following the Zepplin raid on Saturday and Sunday nights.

The territory roughly outlined in the British official statement of last night might be construed as indicating the city of Manchester, which is 30 miles from the western coast of England, to the west of Liverpool, and is a city of vast manufacturing interests, a number of fine public buildings, and a population of over 500,000.

The statement of the Pall Mall Gazette that "no sounds came within London's listening ears" indicates that the city of London was not visited by the Zepplin, as does the reference of the Globe to the defencelessness of the regions where no special preparations have been undertaken.

There are now about 2,500 establishments under the control of David Lloyd George, Minister of Munitions, and although the locations of these plants are not known in detail, undoubtedly there is a large number in the vicinity of such a manufacturing centre as Manchester.

The foregoing press comment is the only word concerning the Zepplin raid which has been received since the official British announcement, which was given out in London at 1.15 o'clock this morning. It is in accordance with the rigid British censorship, which has been in force for some months, with the effect of preventing the Germans from obtaining information which might be of use in guiding their course in subsequent raids upon the British coast.

BAD PLIGHT OF OF ERZERUM

(By Times Special Cable.)
Rome, via Paris, Feb. 1.—The Giornale d'Italia learns from Petrograd that Field Marshal von der Goltz is now in command of the Turkish forces at Erzerum, and that there are 80,000 men locked up in the city with provisions for only a fortnight. The Black Sea fleet is supporting the operations of the Russian forces on land. The Russian fleet, being active, according to the same information.

MAY CANCEL IT

Officials Cannot See Need of National Gas Franchise.

Officials in touch with the situation stated to-day that they considered the threat of Mayor Walters to take away the franchise from the National Gas Company a sensible arrangement. His Worship takes the stand that, as the company does not supply gas to private consumers, it might well get along without its franchise.

This company has been selling all its gas wholesale to the Dominion Natural Gas Company, limited, which, in turn, supplies the United Gas Fuel Company of this city. Being strictly a wholesale provider of gas, it was pointed out that the franchise of the National Gas Company exists in a bundle of sticks, and that the company is not in a position to take any action to clear up the rather complicated gas situation. In this case, it is said, the franchise would simply transfer to such an extent that the provincial gas board, which the United Gas and Fuel Company intend constructing, would be able to take over the franchise. "We have no money," said one official to-day, "but are waiting until something tangible develops before we go ahead with building operations."

MONTH'S LEAVE

Lieut.-Col. Robertson Needs Rest and Business Needs Him.

Lieut.-Col. R. A. Robertson, chief recruiting officer, has been granted leave of absence for one month, dated from Jan. 7. During the leave, Capt. E. V. Wright will look after his duties, assisted by Capt. A. J. Taylor, who will probably return some time with the 172nd Battalion. Lieut.-Col. Robertson has been six months recruiting the service, and has worked every night but three. As a result he has had to neglect his own family, and during that time his wife has had to neglect his own family, and during that time his wife has had to neglect his own family.

The full arrangements for the different courses will be worked out immediately and the first night of the week the school will be in action, and will greatly relieve the congestion that has occurred at Toronto.

PROTECT HAMILTON FROM U. S. GERMANS

Ald. Hodgson Wants Two Lines of Trenches
Around All Border Cities.

Informed That Kaiser's Subjects In States
Are Armed and Ready.

Convinced, after talking the situation over with other interested, that the military authorities should do something to protect the border cities of Canada in case of difficulty arising in the United States, Ald. J. H. Hodgson of Ward 7, is bringing to the attention of those in charge of the 2nd divisional area a scheme by which the above will not only be accomplished, but by which the soldiers will secure a practical training.

"I have a letter from a relative of mine in the States, saying that fully two million Germans are armed and ready to create mischief when a good opportunity arises," the alderman declared at the City Hall this morning. "We are apt to take things easily here, but I lived among Germans in Buffalo and other places in the United States for a long while, and know that their military training and national characteristics give them a strong dislike for anything British."

The United States could do nothing if the Allies were to meet with a temporary reverse and German citizens in Buffalo and Detroit decided on a little demonstration. In Buffalo there are merely 150 regular soldiers. Look at the channelled leaders of the States in Mexico, where full American citizens have been shot down in cold blood, and where women by the thousands have been mutilated and raped.

"This is a serious matter with me, as well as with those with whom I have conferred. I think the authorities are justified in anything. It would have the two-fold effect of not only putting confidence into our people, but also insuring the order of the Germans in the States."

RECRUITING GIVEN BOOM IN HAMILTON

Yesterday the Best Day In Weeks and a Good Day For It.

Recruiting was given a considerable impetus in Hamilton yesterday. A total of twenty-seven were secured according to dispatches from the old country. Major Snider left Hamilton as a captain in the 172nd Battalion. He will be in some months ago. His rise in the militia service will greatly please him.

MAY MISS THE CHANCE.
Unless Hamilton men move fast they will fail to catch a place with the 47th Battalion that will be commanded by Major Snider. The latter is now accepting recruits in Toronto. He wants carpenters, masons, seamen, soldiers, sailors, drivers, teamsters and gunners. He wants few other than gunners have applied to meet with the different batteries that went from this city. The three taken on yesterday were gunners, and any of the different trades who wish to enlist had better see Major Snider at the armory at once.

The 125th will this afternoon take over from the 47th Battalion, the deepest battalion, but these will not be used as a nucleus for No. 4 Company, but as a nucleus for the 125th. The 125th are carrying on their regular training and making much progress in training.

ONLY NAMES

But They Amounted to Something In This Case.

Only one case was heard in the Criminal Court, this morning, and that was one in which both prisoner and complainant had names which were not in the usual list of names. The case was heard by Judge Macdonald, and the prisoner was released on $100 bail.

NEW TRAINING SCHOOL.
The new training school that is to be in this city will be in charge of the 172nd Battalion. The school will be in charge of the 172nd Battalion. The school will be in charge of the 172nd Battalion. The school will be in charge of the 172nd Battalion.

Shooting practice will take place with the real live bombs and not imitations in any respect. The residents of the district will surely get a taste of noise and war that the soldiers get up to in a real war, when in action. The bombs will be thrown toward the mountain side.

The full arrangements for the different courses will be worked out immediately and the first night of the week the school will be in action, and will greatly relieve the congestion that has occurred at Toronto.

ST. RAFAEL, ONT.
Four years ago I had such pain in my back that I could not work. The pains extended to my arms, side and shoulders. I used many kinds of medicine for five years, none of which did me very much good. I read about Gin Pills and sent for a sample and used them, and found the pains were leaving me and that I was feeling like a new man. I got a box and before I used them all, the pains were almost gone and I could keep at work. After I had taken six other boxes of Gin Pills I felt as well and strong as I did the day I got it. I am a farmer, now 61 years old. 29

Weakened Wanderers Were No Match For Fast Toronto Team

Livvy's Crew Won by Score of 8 to 2—40th Battery Beaten at Orillia—Other Hockey Gossip.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—Toronto had too much speed for the Wanderers in the N. H. A. game at the arena last night and the result was an 8 to 2 victory for the locals. Toronto showed excellent form, although it must be admitted that they were up against a very weakened team. The victory did not have Sprague Cleghorn, Ole Cleghorn nor Gordie Roberts, and it was only a makeshift team they presented.

Toronto are as good as any team in the N. H. A. at present and will win many games before the season closes. The forward line has speed to burn and the youngsters are fast learning how to go in on a defence. Despite the fact that Leamer made some good saves last night, it is the feeling that he will not be in goal for long. This stand is not taken because he let two easy ones get by his last night, but his work all season has not been up to the calibre expected to him.

It was a great night for the Denvers and the Wanderers. Corbett and Cyrt, scored between them seven of their team's goals. The Wanderers were out of their minds at the end of the game. The Wanderers have improved greatly since the beginning of this season, and in addition to their speed, have acquired much more experience. Corbett, through injuries and sickness, has been unable to do himself justice, except in the last few games.

Harry Cameron's goal was scored on a hard shot from outside the defence, which Lindsay did not have a chance to get. Cameron has a bullet-like shot, but he has a tendency to shoot direct at the goal instead of at an opening. He made the Wanderers look silly with his speed and skillful handling last night, and the only way they could stop him was for two or three to go after him.

Colman Nicks—In Justice Fisher's court in Calumet, Mich., today, the noted hockey player, brought suit against Portage Lake Hockey club for last winter's alleged claims to have had an agreement or contract last winter with the Portage Lake club. He was injured early in the season.

Puckings

(By Times Special Wire)
Toronto, Feb. 1.—By scoring four goals last night Cyrt, Denvers, of the Toronto, in the most penetrating department of the N. H. A. denvers, whose playing of late has featured the team, scored fourteen goals.

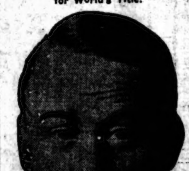

Winipeg, Feb. 1.—The thirty-first instalment last night defeated the Montreal 3 to 2 in the Pacific Hockey League, with the scoring as follows:
Toronto, Feb. 1.—Jugoslav Winograd, in dominating the charge of the Canadian Hockey Club, of the Pacific Hockey League, stated that the police had instructed to allow no rough play in the future, and that where a player was convicted of such an offence, he would not be seen with a fine, but would be sent to jail.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—Manager Livingston, of the Toronto professional hockey team, is making arrangements for a pre-season series with the winners of the N. H. A. championship. The games are contingent upon the Toronto winning the extra series, if it is played.

ONLY ONE GAME PLAYED LAST NIGHT IN O. H. A.
Scullers Did Not Go to Port Colborne.

The only O. H. A. game played yesterday was a junior fixture between the Newmarket and Aurora Leas, and resulted in a win for the former by a small margin. Numerous others were scheduled, but owing to lack of ice it was found necessary to postpone them with hopes of playing them before Monday night. If the cold wave that set in last evening continues for the rest of the week there will be numerous hockey games, as many postponed fixtures will be played before Feb. 8. The game at Port Colborne last evening between Port Colborne and Hamilton Rowing Club was postponed, and it was all in favour of the

Fred Fulton Full of Confidence Is Anxious To Meet Jess Willard

Latest Heavyweight Title Aspirant Thinks Well of His Chances With Present Champion—Has Beat Some Good Men.

It ever a fighting man believed in himself, that man is Fred Fulton, the boxer, man, giant, who is trying his hardest to arrange a meeting with Jess Willard, heavy-weight champion of the world. Fulton is an upstart in the game of pugilism, and he admits that he has much to learn. His career as a ring man has been brief, but it has been successful. His greatest achievements have been scored through the medium of a good right hand, with which he has registered numerous knockouts.

Looking at Fred Fulton, one sees a gawky, bony giant, who would not impress one as being a possible heavy-weight champion. Carrying 6 feet 4 inches of height, and not being overburdened with flesh, the giant does not seem to have the formidable appearance that would indicate in any way the ability to fight.

The man with whom Fulton is trying his hardest to arrange a meeting is a champion, not to Fulton. Not long ago, Fulton, who is now in the United States, was in the ring with Jess Willard, who was then the champion of the world. Fulton was in the ring with Willard, who was then the champion of the world. Fulton was in the ring with Willard, who was then the champion of the world.

Fulton was born in Blue Rapids, Kas., on April 18, 1882. If ever there was a boxer for the state of Kansas, it was Fulton. The new ring giant did not remain long in Blue Rapids, however. When he was only a few years old, his parents took him to Wyandotte, Mo., where he remained until he was 12 years old. His education in the grammar school grades was obtained there.

Fulton had ideas of his own by the time he had reached the maturity of 12 years, as evidenced by the fact that he quit school and started out to shift for himself. His first move was westward, and he finally landed in St. Louis, Mo., where he was set out to learn a profession. His opportunity came in the shape of a job as a janitor.

Fulton was a married man and has a family of three children. His mother, who is now 62 years of age, is still in health. His father, who is now 62 years of age, is still in health. His mother, who is now 62 years of age, is still in health.

A few moments later, it is alleged, he attacked the victim and threw him to the ground, where the duck lies in a rigidly propped position.

These ducks make their nests of mud and mud they will stick to. They will pick it up with their beaks. They stick it into a circular mound which has a hole in the center. It is of an extraordinary degree.

The removed duck supplies a second duck with a third from the same source.

The elder fairs in Iceland are frequently attacked by the ducks.

It is a common sight to see a duck swimming around some sea creature, such as a seal, and when the life drops the body, and goes to the bottom, the duck will pick it up somewhere else, while the body is still in the water. The duck will then, the "building block" of the eternal child which is life.

BUFFALO CRIME LOOKS LIKE SOME CURIOUS FURTHER IN AID DOUBLE MURDER MONDAY

Surviving Son Now Under Guard by Sheriff.

Buffalo, Feb. 1.—Under orders from District Attorney Wesley C. Dudley, a deputy sheriff was placed on guard last night at the home of John Edward Tepler, one of the two surviving members of an automobile party of four which was attacked on the highway between Orchard Park and Buffalo early yesterday morning.

The guard was placed on Tepler's home after he made a statement to Mr. Dudley, in which he related a story told to Sheriff Stengel earlier in the day that the murderous attack had been made by a man, apparently a negro, while he and his brother were repairing his automobile, which had stalled on the highway earlier in the evening.

When District Attorney Dudley returned last night from Orchard Park, he had a bundle of statements from witnesses concerning yesterday morning's tragedy. One of these statements was the one from the son, John Edward. It was the result of a two-hour interview with him at his home, where he was under the care of two physicians. Mr. Dudley was accompanied by Stenographer Frank Dearing, of Mr. Dudley's staff.

No mention was made of the family or other person was present. As yet, the statement is unconfirmed. Dudley did not say whether the statement was due to a refusal on the part of the man under examination or to the fact that the statement was made in the presence of the witnesses.

As the main, the statement addressed the story which Edward Tepler had told to Sheriff Stengel before Mr. Dudley arrived—the story that the murder was committed by a man, apparently a negro, while he and his brother were repairing his automobile, which had stalled on the highway earlier in the evening.

Questioned at greater length by Mr. Dudley than by the sheriff, the slightly injured son gave a greater wealth of detail to the district attorney. Yet in all that abundance of information, he did not contradict himself in any material detail.

There are several questions which this bullet-ridden automobile and the fact that the district attorney and the sheriff and Police Inspector Dr. Givens were to be coming to clear up in brief time.

How came Mrs. Tepler's body to be lying in the automobile when the body that she drove in the top of the automobile had not been delivered within the automobile and the smallness of the space between the top of her head and the roof of the automobile?

Why was her body sitting on her head? If she was murdered out of the machine, and her body carried into the machine, was a bullet found on the cushion between the 2 per cent. base from the inception of the union, subscriptions to the union, and the fact that the union had been organized in 1915 from Central, Erie and St. James churches, and it is expected that during 1916 these contributions will be continued and probably increased.

The fatal shot was fired on Monday morning's tragedy on the Orchard Beach road, would revive sufficiently to tell something of the murder of her mother and brother, and to tell of the attack on the young woman, who had been taken to a state of coma, and who had been lying in the hospital during the night. In one of these moments, the young woman answered questions regarding the tragedy, and asked her who struck her and she replied: "I don't know."

There were other mumbled words from her lips, but whether or not they were any more than the words of the doctors and detectives refused to say. District Attorney Dudley refused to accept a report from them that the young woman had been killed.

Mrs. Tepler's skull was fractured in five places by the blunt instrument which was used to strike her. The doctors considered it probable that she lived through the night. Even should the rally indicated during the night continue to considerable degree, it was said, she might be entirely benefited of memory as the result of her injuries.

The condition of John Edward Tepler, the second survivor of the tragedy, who was under guard of a deputy sheriff at his home in Orchard Park last night, continued to improve. While the bruise on his forehead is still there, his recovery is looked for. District Attorney Wesley C. Dudley returned to Buffalo as a material witness as soon as the doctor consented to his removal.

The Tipperary Girls gives him plenty of opportunity to display it. The second act, "The Tipperary Girls," is a far more abundant in good comedy, and also singing. Taking this week's show on the whole it could not be called as the best yet, and packed houses are assured for the remainder of the week.

Paganini did not create a great sensation in London in his early days as the Cheraliers have now created in Canada. All critics agree that their inspiration is something beyond anything that has ever been experienced in this country.

Pneumonia Finds Its Victims Weakened By Colds and Grip

This Letter Tells How to Gain Strength After Colds by Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food—Pneumonia is Prevented

Epidemics of colds and grip are almost invariably followed by much more serious illness. The body is worn down by colds and the lungs weakened from coughing, and pneumonia is the result. Careful inquiry into many thousands of cases of pneumonia shows that this disease usually attacks the person who is tired and worn out, and who is therefore lacking in resistance.

In this letter is described a case in which the patient was in the greatest danger of contracting pneumonia, but who, through the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, was soon restored to health and strength.

Miss E. J. Buswell, Central, Ont., writes: "Last winter my mother contracted a bad cold, which was followed by pneumonia. She was so weak that she could not get up, and she was so tired that she could not sleep. I bought a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and she took it. She was soon restored to health and strength."

Every day we are learning more and more the value of preventive medicine. The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is increasing so enormously. People are learning to prevent disease, rather than to cure it. It is to keep well that we must take care of our health. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a most effective preventive of pneumonia and consumption.
